South East Asia Briefing

Friday October 31, 2008

8:30 am - 11:30 am

Baker & McKenzie, in conjunction with the consulting firm KWR International, Inc., will be hosting a breakfast briefing on Southeast Asia's New Expanded Special Economic Zone (off Coast of Singapore) on Friday October 31, 2008 from 8:30 am - 11:30 am in the Inns.

The Province of Riau Islands in cooperation with Baker & McKenzie, the American Indonesian Chamber of Commerce (AICC) and the Consulate General of the Republic of Indonesia in Chicago invite internationally-focused investors, executives, financial and service professionals, journalists and other interested individuals to attend an Investor Forum highlighting emerging trade and investment opportunities within Southeast Asia's New Expanded Special Economic Zone (SEZ), located 12 miles off the coast of Singapore in Indonesia.

Supporting organizations include the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, The United States - Indonesia Society, The Chicago Council on Global Affairs, the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity and the International Trade Association of Greater Chicago. Supporting publications include Asia Times, EE Times, Electronics Supply & Manufacturing and the KWR International Advisor.
